

Expected Outcomes of Self-Study

Through the completion of the self-study process the school will have accomplished:

1. The involvement and collaboration of all staff and other shareholders to support student achievement.
2. The clarification and measurement of what all students should know, understand, and be able to do through expected schoolwide learning results and academic standards.
3. The gathering and analyzing of data about students and student achievement.
4. The assessment of the entire school program and its impact on student learning in relation to expected schoolwide learning results, academic standards, and WASC/CDE criteria.
5. The alignment of a long-range action plan to the school's areas of need; the development and implementation of an accountability system for monitoring the accomplishment of the plan.
